

MODENA

Modena is a city rich in traditions, culture and famous for its food.

The centre of our town is important because there are a lot of ancient buildings like the Modena Cathedral and the nearby bell tower named Ghirlandina, the Military Academy (one of the most famous academies in the world) which is housed in the wonderful Ducal Palace and also the historical University of Modena.

Modena is also well known for car production and for its excellent food.

